

Paul and his brother visited an elderly home last week. Help him write a personal recount about the visit in about 50 words. Use the pictures and words below to help you.

1.  visit / elderly home / last week	2.  learn / the basics of Chinese painting
3.  drop / tomato sauce / by accident	4.

Guided Questions:

1. Where did Paul and his brother visit last week?
2. What did Paul and his brother learn from Uncle Mak?
3. What did Paul do by accident?
4. What happened next?
5. How do Paul and his brother feel about their visit?

A Visit to an Elderly Centre

My brother and I visited an elderly home last week. We enjoyed the visit very much. First, we chatted with the old people. Then, we learned the basics of Chinese painting from Uncle Mak. While Uncle Mak and my brother were painting, I felt hungry. So, I took out a bag of fresh fries and started eating. Suddenly, I dropped some tomato sauce on Uncle Mak's painting paper by accident. I was scared. 'Don't worry! We can draw some flowers to cover it.' said Uncle Mak calmly. I feel great about the visit. It is very nice to meet the elderly.